Cypress Girls To Have Chance At Queen Title

Local girls between the ages of 16 and 25—ATTENTION!

A contest will begin next week to pick a Cypress girl to represent the Chamber of Commerce in the county-wide race for the title of Orange county's "Queen of the Air."

Among other honors, there will be a first prize of $15 in cash. Besides that, the Cypress candidate will have a chance at the county title, and will appear in the final judging at an elaborate affair May 20.

You Can Back Your Choice

In next week's issue of the ENTERPRISE, there will be an advertisement telling of the rules of the contest, and also a coupon which will serve as a ballot for the entry. In that way, the backers of one candidate can help her win by getting coupons entered for her.

The field will be narrowed to a few finalists, and the winner will be chosen from them. Method by which the chamber will pick the final candidate will be announced next week.

Lad and Lassie Honored; Appear On Television

Even a near-tragedy can result in one of those "thrills that come once in a lifetime." Just such an event occurred for little "Sandy" De Polter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack De Polter last Friday evening when she received an award for saving a life on a telecast from Hollywood Friday evening.

The popular "Uncle Tony" requested that David Thomas and his rescuer appear as guests on his program and explain to boys and girls in his audience just how it happened that "Sandy" saved David's life as he accidentally hung from the limb of a tree as his neck caught in a noose at the end of an old rope suspended there.

Little "Sandy," shy and modest, would not talk for "Uncle Tony," so her daddy told the story of how she came running for help. The little miss is the first to receive a trophy which will be a regular monthly feature of the program. "Uncle Tony" asked David to use the life which "Sandy" saved to become a "good deeder" and a good American.

QUESTION DAIRY PERMIT

Visser Brothers of Cypress asked for a variance permit to establish a commercial dairy of 300 cows on land north of Orange Ave. and 660 feet east of Denni Rd.

However, Supervisor Ralph McFadden asked that the permit be held up. He stated that county ordinances call for only 200 cows where Visser brothers expect to care for 300. Ground would not absorb the additional water necessary, he said.

An application by George Brouwer for the establishment of a fertilizer business was denied. The location was requested at the southwest corner of Walker St. and La Palma Ave. The denial followed a public hearing by the commission and a petition opposing the variance which 35 signed.

WHO IS RUNNING THE COUNTY?

A month ago, the unincorporated areas of Orange county received a much needed benefit in passage by the Board of Supervisors of an ordinance restricting soliciting and peddling in "rural areas."

This ordinance was the first step in controlling one of our most vexing problems—and one applauded by housewives as well as business men who were constantly being "sold" something or other.

Amazing is the word that seems nearest to expressing our reaction when we read in a Santa Ana paper that the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, speaking through secretary Stanley Bates, is spearheading a drive, according to the press story, to scrap the ordinance. Bates claimed he could find "no support" for the ordinance, although it was passed a month ago with the understanding that several veteran's organizations and Sheriff Musick wanted it.

It seems strange to this writer, that men having restrictions in their city to control soliciting and peddling and who request all such persons to be okayed by their Better Business Bureau, should go out of their own province to try to "scrap" such control in the county.

Obviously no effort was made by Bates or his organization to find any "support" for the ordinance for there is plenty.

Unless they have a better plan for this much-needed control and are merely putting the cart before the horse, we would like to suggest that Santa Ana concentrate on their own problems and let the elected representatives of people in the "rural areas" handle their own job.

Certainly by no stretch of the imagination could this matter be any concern of the Santa Ana Chamber or its Mr. Bates.

VFW Installs 15, Auxiliary 31 In Impressive Ceremony Last Week

Aided by an official installation team consisting of members of neighboring posts, new officers of the Cypress VFW post no. 9847 and its Auxiliary were installed in the utility room of the schoolhouse Thursday evening.

Jean Kreissler was re-elected president of the auxiliary. Following are the names of the other newly installed officers: senior vice, Louise Begley; junior vice, Beth Reisig; treasurer, Ann Wedeking; chaplain, Olive Williams; conductress, Virginia Daniel; guard, Frances Demiris; three year trustee, Pat Johnson; two year trustee, Betty Knauss; one year trustee, Lucille Christopher; district delegates, Julia Bouse, Maxine Williams and Frances Demiris; secretary, Ellen Jennings; color bearers, Pat Johnson, Kathleen Loney, Betty Knauss and Lucille Christopher; flag bearer, Zedith Hathcock; banner bearer, Maxine Williams; historian, Ruby Goodman and patriotic instructor, Julia Bouse.

The husband and father is in Canada and the family will move there from their home in Houston, Texas, when suitable living quarters are found.

Notice

The office of the Cypress ENTERPRISE has been moved to 5376 Lincoln Ave. The building which was formerly the Cypress Pottery shop, will also house Kroesen's printing.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Kroesen and their son, Dale, occupy the house and trailer and the rear of the property.

The office telephone number remains the same, Anaheim 60355. The phone installed at the Burt Kroesen residence is Anaheim 60354.

Said In Cypress

That in the largest unbentched dog show held in La Palma park in Anaheim last Sunday, a local canine won a ribbon for first prize. The O'Halloran's doberman pinscher "Nina," with a German name which is too long to print, besides being difficult to spell, carried top honors.

That when Mrs. Arva Clements was removing ducks from the incubator Monday she met with a great surprise. Believe it or not, one of them had four legs. How about coming over for dinner, Mrs. "Clem"? You bring the duck!

That as long as we're on the subject of animals, we might as well admit that we had our first full night's rest Wednesday night in seven whole weeks! Reason: the puppies and their mother are all gone. Heidi is two years old today, and it was really a problem to give her up. You may expect to still see Willy, however, as he is led (?) to and from town by the man with the pipe.

C OF C MEMBERS DISCUSS FORMING SANITATION DISTRICT

Information released this past week that plans are being made for the Magnolia Ave. sewer trunk line and that a decision must be made by communities in the outlying districts as to whether or not they wish to be included came as somewhat of a surprise. The size of the line will depend on the number of districts to be served.

Speaking on the matter before the Chamber of Commerce in its meeting last Monday evening, A. E. Arnold reported that a period of less than 60 days remains in which residents of Cypress, Los Alamitos and Stanton can decide on forming a sanitary district, or districts, to provide collection facilities to connect to the Joint Outfall Sewer system lines and in turn to the county sanitation system's treatment plant and ocean outfall, for which plans now are being designed.

The county-wide sanitation set-up includes west county districts only as "limited participation" members in that they will pay only for ownership rights in the main disposal line, sewage treatment plant and ocean outfall. Whatever other works are laid to collect the sewage through local trunks, laterals and main lines leading to the principal disposal outlet will have to be financed separately. In other words, the present decision is another one of those which must be made to insure an eventual inclusion in Sanitation District No. 3.

The members of the chamber's sanitation committee will contact chambers in Stanton and Los Alamitos and perhaps arrange for an open meeting in the near future.

Buy Fire Plug

Chamber members went on record as approving the purchase of one of four fire plugs which volunteer firemen have an opportunity to acquire at a reasonable sum. These will connect to a six-inch line. At the present time the town has only two plugs which will pass state inspection from which to pump from. One is at the corner of Lincoln and Walker Sts. and the other is the recently installed hydrant on the Sam Rosen property which he furnished himself. The four new plugs will be strategically placed around town where it is felt they will be of the most benefit.

Oppose Dairy

It was reported that the planning commission did not approve the application of Alfred Giacomi to establish a commercial dairy at the northwest corner of Lincoln Ave. and Hansen St. President James Broadbelt stated that a representative of Giacomi's had visited him prior to the chamber's meeting and explained that permission to build was now being applied for on a plot of ground at Crescent Ave. and Gay St. which is available for purchase.

M. R. Bouse, president of a water company on the latter street which is composed of 20 members, said that all are protesting the establishing of a dairy in that section. Six new homes have been built there recently and it is thought that possibly five new homes are contemplated. The neighborhood is not zoned for agriculture and a variance is needed for a commercial dairy.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN ASK COOPERATION FROM LOCAL PARENTS

Both Fire Chief A. E. Arnold and assistant chief, Haskell A. Kelley, of the Cypress Volunteer Fire department, are sending an appeal to parents of youths to help eliminate false fire alarms which are being made by pranksters.

Such thoughtlessness is a serious threat to life and limb of local firemen who must risk traffic accidents and other hazards to arrive at a fire promptly. The time element involved in reaching the scene of a blaze is often a deciding factor in whether or not the property can be saved.

Not long ago the department went to considerable expense and trouble to have cards printed for residents which gave the fire station telephone number. It was felt that this handy information would be valuable to the householder or merchant.

A warning has been issued that this number will be changed to a secret one and calls for help will have to go through the operator in Orange if the false fire alarms are not stopped.

Residents are also reminded that the hours for burning trash and rubbish from now until December are from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m. Permit to burn in an open fire is required, and may be obtained free of charge at the Cypress Beverage store, the Cypress hardware or at the Fire Station.

Cypress VFW Will Have Poppy Day

"VFW Buddy Poppies are fashioned by the same hands that flew the planes, steered the ships and manned the guns in the struggle for freedom and democracy," Commander Frank Buzzo, of the Cypress VFW post reminded local citizens in announcing the annual sale of the little crimson flowers to be held in Cypress on May 27 through May 30.

Disabled veterans in government hospitals and soldiers' homes actually do the work of assembling the Buddy Poppies and they receive compensation for their work. Not only has this activity proved of real value, but it also provides some extra spending money so that those men may buy some of the little extra comforts that the veterans administration does not provide for.

From sale of poppies to the public, money is used exclusively for the welfare and service work of the VFW.

Most of the money raised will stay right here in Cypress, and will assist us in caring for the needs of our own sick and disabled vets, their dependents and survivors of the comrades who have passed on. Remembering that citizens of Cypress have responded generously in the past to the poppy sale, Buzzo expresses the hope that they will contribute even more this year.

I RISE TO REMARK

by John Phillips

There is nothing a Representative likes more than to get home and talk with his people. I enjoyed thoroughly the week I have just spent in the district. There is a stimulation in the youth and enthusiasm of the younger men and women who are working in the campaign, some of them for the first time, as there is in long standing friendships. A tide is moving, and like all movements, from hobbies to depression or prosperity, it is moving from east to west. There are indications in California. People now realize that all is not well in Washington, and they want to hear details from us who are close to the picture, and to express their own opinions.

What are the people at home thinking about? Last December they did not want more taxes, and were concerned about the deficit. They now want the present taxes reduced, especially the excise taxes, and there is a realization of the connection between wasteful spending and deficits and taxes and eventual bankruptcy or devaluation. This is good. But a new note has come into the meetings. What, ask the people, is there to tell us about the stories now coming out of the State Department? What about Hiss? What about red herrings? What about Joe McCarthy? These questions superseded the usual questions about farm policies, or strictly local issues.

Trip

It was a quick trip, but a good one, and encouraging. To have pot-luck supper with my farm friends in Brawley one evening, then meet with more friends the next morning in Calexico at a breakfast arranged through Chamber officials, then to meet with the citizens of Blythe at ten o'clock, to talk about water problems, and to have lunch in Banning with men and women brought together by my own Kiwanis club, followed by a few hours to look after personal matters before dinner and a meeting in Indio, not only leaves the impression of a busy day (like all the others) but emphasizes the increasing world problems which face the Congress, and the fallacy of talking any more of anything like isolationism, if there were such a thing.

These are my reports, on returning to Washington: The Ways and Means Committee is about to bring out the tax reduction bill. It will recommend reducing or eliminating some war-imposed excise taxes, not older ones, and probably, under pressure from the White House, it will not cut as deeply as you or I want. The Appropriation Bill is on the Floor for amendment. It is not likely to be through the House until the first week in May. I wish we could develop, in my own party, the fighting morale of a good football team. We lost an amendment to cut the top-heavy State Department budget by only 10 per cent, on a teller vote of 107 to 113, or a total of 220 members present out of a possible 435. We lost an amendment to remove the authority under which departments and agencies use the taxpayers' money to send their employees all over the nation, to promote their own ideas, by a vote of only 52 to 52 so it was decided against us, by the chairman's vote. This is disheartening to anyone who knows how little the appropriations have really been cut in this time of crisis.

Conditions

State Department conditions are coming more and more into focus. You will recall I asked you to keep open minds and not to prejudice these cases. I told you I knew some of Senator McCarthy's sources and had seen some of his material. Now you

AUTO CLUB'S TRIP OF THE WEEK

HIDDEN VALLEY

Ventura County abounds with a diversified assortment of enchanting and verdant scenes, one of its most picturesque being evident along the highway in the vicinity of peaceful, oak-studded Hidden Valley. This particular tour is not a long one and offers a natural Sunday outing for motorists traveling from most sections of Southern California.

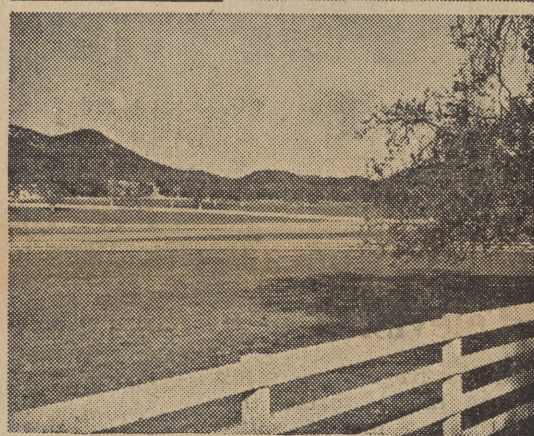

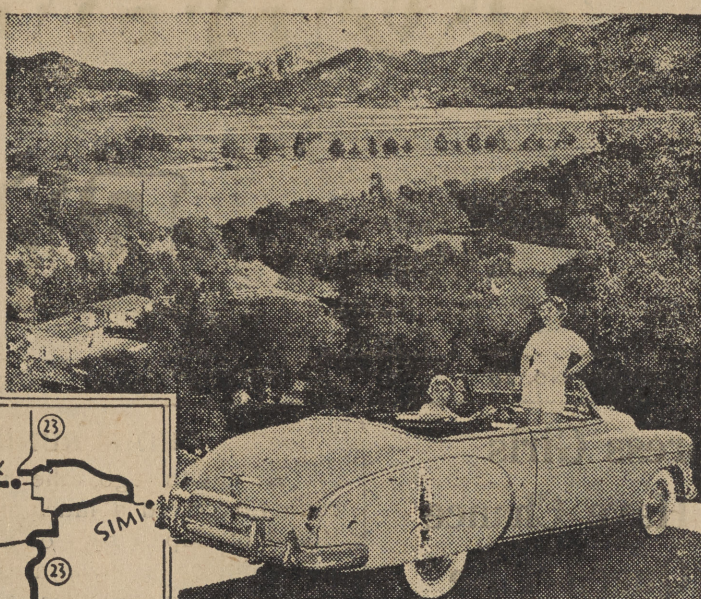

● Our theoretical starting point is Oxnard which was founded in 1898 after the establishment of the American Beet Sugar Company's converting plant. Beet sugar is still the town's principal product with lima beans next in importance. Oxnard is the central distributing point for local ranches...

● The tiny Mexican village of El Rio is worth a visit if only to see the house where recently a likeness of the Virgin Mary was reported to have been seen on the roof by many of the local townspeople. El Rio's first general store is still standing, the black letters on its brick wall indicating the town's first name was "New Jerusalem"...

● The area encompassing Moorpark, Somis and Simi is rich agricultural land and therein will be found some of the world's largest lemon orchards and bean fields. Farther south at Thousand Oaks, one may visit the World Jungle Compound, where many of the wild animals that perform in the movies are trained. Mabel Stark, the famous animal trainer, works here...

● Long Grade Canyon is important in that it once served as an old freight road from the Conejo region to Port Hueneme. Historically-minded motorists may wish to deviate from the course here by traveling north to U.S. 101, which was a section of the old Camino Real that linked the early California missions.

HELEN DOUGLAS RECEIVES COUNTY ENDORSEMENT

Helen Gahagan Douglas, Democratic candidate for United States Senator, last Thursday night received the unanimous endorsement of the Democratic Central Committee of Orange County, it was announced today by James E. Walker, chairman of Mrs. Douglas' Orange County Campaign committee.

The unprecedented action of official Democratic committee followed closely similar action taken by Central committees for Riverside, Fresno, San Joaquin, Contra Costa, Stanislaus and Tulare counties.

know why I said that. Perhaps it takes a two-fisted, fighting Irishman, rather than a more tactful one to generate the drive which has revealed some of the sources of internal treason, and to make honest and clean-minded men and women accept the incredible stories of "poor security risks" by the thousands, for reasons varying from mistaken idealism to perversion, many of them in highly sensitive government spots. After a briefing last night, by the State Department executives, on the present delicacies of our USSR-US relations, I want to say, with George Washington, "Put only Americans on guard tonight."

TO HAVE 40 HOURS OF DEVOTION

Forty hours of devotion will take place at St. Pius V Catholic church beginning with the 10:00 a.m. high mass, Sunday, April 30 and will terminate Tuesday night at the 7:30 devotion, Father Frederick Kass announced.

The following is the schedule: Procession after 10:00 a.m. mass after which Blessed Sacrament will be exposed all day till 7:30 p.m. devotion, and on Monday and Tuesday from 7:30 a.m. mass till evening services at 7:30 p.m.

Father Raymond Lasselle, Redemptorist priest from Whittier, will preach at all the evening devotions. All the parishioners are expected to take their turn in visiting the church during the many hours of the exposition.

On May Day it is the hope of the pastor, Father Frederick Kass, to have all night adoration after the Sunday evening services until 7:30 a.m. mass Monday, May 1, if a sufficient number of people will volunteer. "The intention is to pray for the conversion of Russia," Father Kass said.

TRAVELOGUE

(The editor seems to think that Susan and I should get back home from Oregon and Northern California. So here goes another effort to pull out of the romantic places "up north" for Southern California.)

Hornbrook is an old village in sight of the California - Oregon line. The village, or the old village is just off the Klamath river and was a trading point for the mountaineers who lived up the river and in the little valleys. With the coming of the automobile and good roads the mountaineers go over the mountains to Ashland and Yreka. To add insult to injury a new highway has just been completed which leaves Hornbrook a mile to the north. The little village is too old and settled to pick up and move over to the highway and so it is just sleeping and waiting for something to turn up.

Rob and Grace live about a mile from the village. They have about 480 acres of land about half of which is creek bottom land which they plant to grain. The old house is one of the land marks and sets upon a hill. It is a gigantic old thing and might be haunted if you believe in ghosts. Rob is one of those good Christians who spends most of his time doing for others. He raises beef cattle to which he feeds his grain hay when the snow lies deep. There is a very old apple orchard that spreads from the front door over the hill side to the valley below.

Grace is one of those thrifty women who cans everything that grows. Then there is a great cellar that is full of apples, squash, pumpkins, cabbages. Yes, and there might be a half venison and a shoulder of beef hidden away. The yards around the big barns are full of chickens of all ages, turkeys and ducks. Grace can stew up a hen and drop in a few dumplings quick as a cat can wink its eye and she can fry a young chicken just as quick.

Rob was cutting the winter wood with a chain saw and we pitched in and helped a bit. You know working out in the woods is conducive to a large appetite and with such a store house to expect from we were always in a dither of wondering what was coming next. O yes, Rob milks two or three cows and there is no end of milk, butter and cheese. It is no wonder that Susan and I enjoyed several days visiting with Rob and Grace nor were we greatly surprised when the scales told us we had picked up several pounds.

We reckoned our stay by the gauge of welcome. We stayed just so long as we were certain of a welcome at some future date. We left Hornbrook dozing in the sunshine and we climbed the beautiful Siskiyou Mountains and passed over the state line. You don't have to stand inspection going out of California but try to enter California without having the inspectors snoop through your luggage. We coasted down the long mountain slopes into the upper end of the Medford Valley where nestles one of the most pleasing little cities in the west, Ashland. It has a little niche hollowed out of the big mountain all its own at the same time that it overlooks the broad valley with its large farms and meadows. Ashland is a town of good homes, tree-lined streets and perfect air.

It is only seventeen miles to Medford from Ashland. A few years ago the highways skirted the mountains on the south side of the valley and was bordered by large farms but today the seventeen miles is given over to the ever present motel, the trailer court, the "greasy spoon" restaurants and the small stores and markets. Medford was hard hit with war day boom and it is still booming. The motorist finds traffic driving comparable with any large city, the difference being that the heavy traffic extends for only twenty or more blocks. The one-way streets are narrow and the people are all trying to get some place at the top speed.

We'll come back to Medford. Today we just hurried through as rapidly as possible. We were soon out in the orchards of the valley and passed the lumber mills that have set up business here and there along the highway. Central Point, a sleepy little berg that has suddenly fallen into the swirl of the logging boom. Two or three large saw mills are scattering soot and sawdust all about. The motorist has to be on the alert to dodge the trucks that are bouncing out from dusty roads coming out of the hills.

As we near the lower end of the valley we see the Rogue river come out of the north to rush into the canyon that leads to Grants Pass. Twelve years ago we came up this canyon valley and enjoyed the beautiful little spots, small farms and garden homes. Today there is an endless chain of motels, river camps, fishing lodges, tourist cabins and what not. The beautiful river has been fished out, commercialized, boomed until it is just another place where the dollar mark has become the emblem.

Susan once lived in Grants Pass but the town has long outgrown her memory. The homey town she knew has grown into a logging center comparable to Medford and other towns of the district. Susan was a little homesick for the town she once had known but now had grown completely out of memory. It was lunch time as we entered Grants Pass and you can always count on a pleasing meal in the Pass so we stopped for lunch.

Until next week,
Yours for a good time,
Susan and W. C.

Dr. Mabel Geddes will visit on April 27 at which time she will examine children and will be free for parent consultation.

"Open House" Held on Anniversary Of Claude Smiths' Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, 9162 Orange Ave., were honored last week on the occasion of their silver wedding.

On Sunday "open house" was held between two o'clock and five in the afternoon, and from seven to nine in the evening, at their home.

Greeting the relatives and friends, who numbered more than 70, as they arrived, was the older daughter, Wilma (now Mrs. Arnold C. Jones, 7501 Pacific Ave., Buena Park). The younger daughter, Bonnie Mae, who is Mrs. Bergen M. Davis, also of Orange Ave., presided at the punch bowl, which stood at one end of the refreshment table.

Mrs. Marjorie Ashby Shane of Long Beach, a sister of Mrs. Smith, cut and served the anniversary cake after the bride and bridegroom of 25 years had shared the first slice. The silver-trimmed cake was decorated with same miniature bride and groom which adorned the wedding cake of Bonnie and Bergen Davis five years ago.

Mrs. Georgianna Pederson of Santa Ana, a sister of Mr. Smith, poured coffee, using a beautiful silver service. Other silver appointments and glowing candles in silver holders completed the table setting on a cloth of silk lace.

Mrs. Grace Sturm of Pomona, a cousin of the honored couple, was in charge of the guest book, while Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. F. S. Ashby, also assisted in hostess duties.

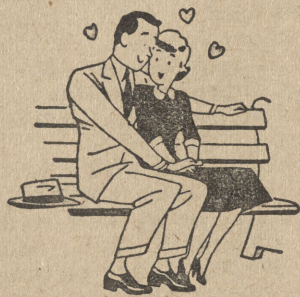

Among the many beautiful presents received by the Smiths was a cedar chest given by the members of their immediate family.

Many pictures were taken during the afternoon to perpetuate the happy event.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married in San Bernardino in April, 1925 but have lived in this vicinity during their 25 years together, on Orangethorpe, Crescent and Orange Aves. Mr. Smith is a citrus grower. Mrs. Smith is a talented musician.

'Chit-Chat from The Teeners'

by Gloria McKenzie

Joann Saylor and Art Marquez have been going together off and on now for about ten months. They have now, with permission of her father forgotten everyone else and are really going steady.

Peg and Russell, Betty and Louie, Kay and Warner, Patsy and Johnny, Art, Bob, Neal, Tom, Tommy, Vance, and Ralph were seen at the Cina-car Friday night.

Darrel Neilsen and Barbara Wallace have been making quite a few dates lately.

Darlene Greenwade was re-elected as captain of the Devellettes after a fuss was made Monday night.

Norma, Norman, Delores and Frank were seen at the beach Sunday afternoon. Later they laughed with Red Skelton in "Yellow Cab Man."

Who was the Gal to whom the Guy said, "You never have any lipstick on anyway," in a certain cafe in L. B.?

The girls lost to the boys again Monday night. For shame!!!

Those seen at the Portuguese Hall in Artesia Saturday night were Delores Coelho, Joey Mello, Carolyn Head, Manuel Coelho, Frank Ferreira, Norma Bounds, Norman Duncan, Johnny Andre, Narcie Ferreira, Phillip Arbisio, and Frank Fernandes. They were having a good time at the wedding dance.

Was that a Long Beach Poly boy we saw Rosie Bader with Friday night?

Delores Slabaugh, alias Rag Mop and Harry Sexton, alias Poochi were seen enjoying the show at the Lakewood Drive In Theatre Friday night.

The Hi-teeners had a good dance Saturday night.

Did you all see the sporty hair-do Beth Kroesen has been seen with?

Shirlee and Duane were seen at the Cypress vs. Coast Grain baseball game Friday night at Norwalk.

A lot of truck drivers wave at a certain waitress while passing a cafe on Lincoln!

Who are all these phone calls to, that Ralph occupies himself with?

Alberta was seen out with Donni Steffans Friday and Sunday night.

It seems Louie, Neal, Vance, Tommy, and Warner were too good to come to the dance Saturday night. How come?

Don Sagon and Carlene Korn, Johnny Kelkner and Sue McLaughlin, and Joe Felkner went riding Friday night.

Mary, Sue and Yours Truly enjoyed another dance at Artesia Hi-teeners Saturday night.

Our prominent outer Berta Slabaugh was seen out with Bob Sanders Saturday night.

The personality crown is to be given to Rosie Bader and Art Matheron this week, while the best dressed goes to Betty Lantz and Dennis Shantzen.

Things are still going good with Marie Schelling and Jess

Corrine Best Has Birthday

Little Miss Corrine Best was guest of honor at a birthday party last Saturday given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Best at their home, 5702 Lincoln Ave.

The recipient of many appropriate gifts, the little hostess received her guests and opened her packages in the yard under the grape arbor. Later her mother served refreshments of cake with ice cream and pop for the small fry and coffee for the adults. High spot in the day's activities came for Corrine when it was time to blow out the two candles which graced the birthday cake.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. R. Greb and Jeanine; Mrs. R. Holder, Shyla and Richard; Cecile, Margaret and Rita Lower; Mrs. L. Brannan, Mike and Dick; Mrs. Jack De Polter, Carolyn and "Sandy"; Jim Beason; Mrs. Sig Anderson, Joel and Tony; Mrs. Emily Fernandez, Michael and Susie Nolan and Mrs. G. Costa and Ronnie.

Koopman.

I'll swan! It looks like Whitney McLaughlin's mind has gone off the deep end. Is he or is he not off his rocker! Just kidding to cover space, Whitney.

We hear Yvonne and Daniel are now going steady.

Gail Rathbun and Red Schneider were united in marriage Sunday at Yuma, Arizona. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Schneider!

COUPLE HOSTS OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Invited to share a dinner which featured Mexican food, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hazlett, 8351 Moody St., entertained a group of his co-workers and their families last Sunday. The men are conductors on the Santa Fe.

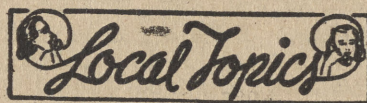

The 25 guests, including nine children, played ball, pitched horse shoes and enjoyed community singing with piano accompaniment. The meal was served at six p.m.

LIST WINNERS POSTER CONTEST LOS ALAMITOS

Prize-winning poppy sale posters will help Los Alamitos American Legion auxiliary members when the memorial flowers are sold May 26-27.

The winners in the Laurel school contest were: first class, Elvire Bueselich, sixth grade, first; Leroy Sjostrom, sixth grade, second; Bobbie Orvecio, fourth grade, third; Sherry Slagel, fourth grade, honorable mention.

Second class: Salvador De Leon, eighth grade, first; Pepe Senteno, eighth grade, second; Norman Frisby, fourth grade, third; Nancy Seibring, fourth grade, honorable mention.

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Mary Morrel of Long Beach was celebrated with a dinner party last Sunday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don West, 8542 Walker St. Covers were laid for the honor guest, her sons and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Morrel, Phil Morrel, and Miss Shirley Smith, all of Long Beach; Mrs. Esther West, Mrs. Maggie Yudes and Raymond Sheeler of Santa Ana, and the host couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Cleek and family will experience a motor trip soon which will take them as far away as Massachusetts. They plan to be gone six weeks. It will be his vacation under civil service from work in Long Beach.

Sgt. Virgil West, for many years a resident of Cypress, attending both the local school and Anaheim high school, is home from New York on a 30 day furlough, visiting his mother, Mrs. Esther West in Santa Ana. He was in Cypress Tuesday visiting his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don West and looking up old friends. At the expiration of his furlough he expects to be shipped to Japan.

SCHOOL CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

May 5—As a result of the fifth grade project to study public utilities, a letter to the gas company for information on its activities brought company officials and the offer to show a 30-minute film on the Texas line. This educational picture will be shown free of charge to students in the fifth through eighth grades. Pupils wrote their letters themselves as part of the project.

May 8—Dr. Mabel Geddes will make her final visit of the school year. She will be available for consultation with parents.

May 10—Mother-daughter Girl Scout banquet.

May 11—P.T.A. meeting. Kindergarten children will provide the school's portion of the program and third grade mothers will serve. Arrangements have been made for Russell Campbell, from the county sheriff's office, to show a 30-minute picture being sponsored by that office, "A Criminal Is Born." This will be the last business meeting of the school year, with new officers presiding. The group will participate in the last day of school activities on June 14, but only in a social way.

May 12—"Glimpses of Holland," a program featuring Roland Van Cavel, will be given, with admission charge of 10c. The entertainment will be educational and feature authentic Dutch costumes, with an explanation of the country's products, language, etc.

TEACHERS SERVE ON UNIQUE PROJECT TO STUDY COUNTY

Boys and girls in school next year will profit in a large measure from a handbook on Field Trips in Orange County. Being prepared by a committee from the Association of Childhood Education, the members visit all the possible business firms, industries, and places of interest which could be visited by pupils for class project purposes.

It is explained by the head of the research committee that a need for such a handbook is felt because many teachers are new in the county and have no knowledge of its resources. With a map of locations, possible photos and a brief description for each field trip, such a handbook should prove invaluable as a ready reference next fall.

Cypress elementary school is well represented on the county-wide committee making the survey. Teachers who are part of the touring group are Mrs. Henrietta Arnold, Mrs. Clarissa Higgins and Wesley Visel.

SET JUNE DATE FOR P.T.A. FIESTA

The board of directors for the Cypress Elementary School P.T.A. met Wednesday afternoon and considered several matters of importance to the organization and the community.

Mrs. Helen Broadbelt of the Chamber of Commerce Co-ordinating Council, recently organized to help fellow townsmen in cases of disaster, presented the needs of the council and the board decided to stage a special drive to raise funds to help this good cause. The constitution and by-laws of the P.T.A. forbid its becoming a member of any other organization, but Mrs. K. D. Giles was appointed to represent the P.T.A. in the council.

Mrs. Howard Decker, president, and Mrs. Merle Bouse, vice president were named as delegates to the P.T.A. convention at Santa Cruz May 3 and 4. They will leave by bus Tuesday and return Friday.

The local P.T.A. carnival is to be held Friday, June 2 and plans were discussed for the dinner and amusements. It was also decided to select the queen for the occasion from the girls of the seventh and eighth grades.

TO REGISTER NEW BEGINNERS FOR KINDERGARTEN

A day has been selected by school officials on which parents may register their children who will be eligible for kindergarten next year.

Miss Elizabeth Dickerson, school superintendent, has announced Wednesday, May 17, as the date. All parents whose names begin with "A" and through the "M" are to come to the school at 10:30 a.m. with their kindergarten children to register for the 1950-51 school year. Any child who will be five by March 1, 1951, is a kindergarten student if the parents wish.

The children will remain in the kindergarten room under supervision of the teacher while the parents register.

All parents whose names begin with "N" and go through the "Z" will have their meeting at 1:30 in the afternoon, likewise bringing children and letting them have the kindergarten experience.

If parents in both the morning and afternoon groups wish their children to share with other children in the period when milk is served, there will be a five cent charge.

The communicable disease report issued by Orange county for the two weeks ending April 22 lists 103 cases of chickenpox, 120 of mumps, 25 red measles, 21, whooping cough, and 10 pulmonary tuberculosis.

Children Help Indian Chief At Program

by Dianna Leverich, 6-A

On Thursday, April 20, a full-blooded American Indian, Chief Chichiaboos came to put on two matinees. One was for the morning group and one for the afternoon. On the morning schedule there were grades up to the fifth. On the afternoon schedule it was from kindergarten to the sixth.

In each group the Indian chief got a little kindergarten girl and put her in a little pack basket and rode her around. The girls were a little scared, but had a lot of fun doing it. There was a very nice man who played the drums for the chief. This man told us about moccasins and bows and had some of them to show to us. Later on the chief danced for us.

The chief had a head dress made of 108 eagle feathers. When he was through with the dance, he went into the audience and got some boys and girls from the fifth and sixth grades to be initiated into his tribe. The name of the tribe is the Chipewewa. In the fifth grade the names of the children that participated were Patsy Raidy, Virginia King, Bessie Norland, Judy Green, Linda Heggood, Florence Hatanaka, Dona Rogers, Robert Mata, Tod Leverich, Kenneth Howery, Joe Giles, Allen Taylor, George Holetz and Taka Tanaka. The ones in the sixth grade who participated were Ivey Giles, Dianna Leverich, Charlene Clifford, Rosalie Miller, Martha Michael, Betty Benson, Billy Van Foeken, Albert Norland, Gaylen Ehrig, Kenneth Arant and Paul Talbot.

They all did a dance and sang a song and then had to do a dance by themselves. Then the chief taught some Indian sign language to the audience. They all enjoyed it very much.

EIGHTH GRADE HOST TO CENTRALIA CLASS

On Tuesday noon, students from Centralia elementary school who are graduating in this year's class were guests of the Cypress eighth graders at lunch in the cafeteria.

In the afternoon they were entertained by the Anaheim High school cadet corps which demonstrated the type of work carried out in its program at school. It was hoped to interest boys who would attend high school next year to sign up.

On Thursday morning the eighth grade class went into the high school to register for their first term there next year.

On Tuesday, April 25, Miss Elizabeth Dickerson and members of the school board will attend the administrator's and trustee's meeting at Ocan View school. The dinner meeting is an annual affair.

MUSIC TEACHER LEAVES STATE

By Rosalie Miller, 6-A

Mrs. Dudley Harper, the music teacher of Cypress school, left Saturday, April 15, for Tacoma, Washington. She will take a position in a woman's study club, called the Delphian society, near Tacoma.

The pupils of Cypress are sorry to lose her. We hope she will be happy at her new work.

(Editor's note: Miss Dickerson stated that due to the fact that six Cypress teachers have either a major or a minor in music, it is not planned to hire another music teacher for the balance of the year.)

Catholic Parish Hall, Grounds Are Improved

Finishing touches were being made on the new parish hall of St. Pius V this week as other improvements were started at the Orangethorpe and Grand Ave. location of the Catholic church.

Started this week was a 470-foot curb, setback 14 feet from the pavement which will allow considerable parking space sufficiently removed from the busy traffic lanes. Also being paved by Contractor Howard Woods is a five-foot walk, 200 feet in length.

The parish hall has been painted a buff color to conform somewhat to the color scheme of the church. The Altar Society of St. Pius V will improve the interior of the building soon with stoves and additional furniture.

A permit is being taken out by the church to construct a 27-foot wide driveway from Grand avenue on church property to the parish hall. The driveway will be used principally as an excess road for a church bus which will be purchased in the near future.

NAZARENE GROUPS PERFECT DETAILS OF ORGANIZATIONS

The Evelyn Reagan and Garnet Howard Missionary societies met recently in joint session to elect officers. General president of the two groups is Mrs. Ocie Ferguson.

The Evelyn Reagan society which is formed by the senior members, elected Mrs. Hollis Woodmansee as their chairman; secretary, Mrs. Frank Davis; treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Boci and study chairman, Mrs. Percy Coffman.

The young women's group, the Garnet Howard society, will have Mrs. Noxie Stearns as chairman; Mrs. Norville Chapman, vice chairman; Miss Gayle McCoy, secretary; Mrs. William Acres; Mrs. William Howard, study chairman, and Mrs. Joe Ferguson, publicity.

Last Tuesday night, 11 men of the Nazarene church met at the church to discuss the organizing of a Men's Brotherhood. "Skip" Washburn, director of the Men's Brotherhood of the Placentia Calvary church, was present and told about his organization and gave advice on the organizing of one in Cypress.

The men decided to attend in a body at the meeting of the Placentia Brotherhood on May 9, and hold their organization at a dinner meeting in June when officers will be elected and the project launched.

Bill "Bambino" Spinks Will Play For Cypress Nine This Season

Heavy-hitting Bill "Bambino" Spinks said this week that he would play for the Cypress Merchants ball club this season, according to Dick Hathcock, manager of the local team.

Spinks is well-known to Cypress players and fans, having caused them trouble last year as pitcher for Coast Grain of Norwalk. Besides being one of the longest hitters in the Norwalk league last year, with ability to perform at best in clinches, Spinks had the reputation of being one of the toughest pitchers to bat against.

High school and junior college districts in the county are receiving $1,350,209 in state apportionment for 1949-50, based on 11,979 average daily attendance.

Elementary schools of the county are receiving $2,802,314 from the state, based on 25,433 average daily attendance of pupils.

L.A. SUPERVISOR SAYS FREEWAY TO REACH LAKEWOOD BLVD. BY '51

The Santa Ana Freeway will be completed as far as Lakewood Blvd. by the end of 1951, Los Angeles County Supervisor William A. Smith, told the Downey Chamber of Commerce at a banquet last week. Smith said he had received this estimate by state highway department officials. He predicted an unprecedented growth for the eastern Los Angeles county community.

Merchants Win Second Game, 4-2

Eddie Arbisio held the Sunshine Acres American Legion nine hitless for five innings Tuesday night as the Cypress Merchants nipped them 4 to 2.

One of the top highlights of the game was when newcomer Bill (Bambino) Spinks clubbed a home run in the second inning, but was called out when the umpire said he did not touch second base.

Cypress scored a run in the fourth and fifth innings to take a two to nothing lead, only to have the visitors catch up with two runs in their top half of the sixth. Cypress scored two more, however, at their turn at bat to pull into the winning margin.

Only three hits were collected off pitcher Arbisio.

Tonight the Merchants meet the Hawaiian Gardens nine on the Cypress diamond.

Whip Coast Grain

The re-organized Coast Grain nine of Norwalk fell before the Merchant bats Friday night at Norwalk.

After the opponents stepped out in front 1 to 0 in the first inning, Cypress bunched five runs in the fifth and took a lead they never lost throughout the game. The final count was 10 to 7.

Bill Spinks was playing for Coast Grain and almost cost the local team the game when he poled out a long one in the first inning, which was saved from being a home run by the fielding of Norman (Red) Duncan.

Eddie Arbisio helped win his own ball game by knocking out a home run in the second inning.

CONSTRUCTION ON ORANGETHORPE AVE. BRIDGE DELAYED

Construction of a new bridge over Coyote creek to complete the Orangethorpe Blvd. widening project was delayed today pending additional borings for foundation tests.

Girls Teams Form Softball League

At a meeting of managers Tuesday evening in Anaheim, six girls' softball teams joined to form a league. Aubrey Greenwade, representing the Cypress girls, attended. A $12.50 entry fee was paid.

Teams included are from Long Beach, Hawaiian Gardens, Fullerton, El Modena, Buena Park and Cypress. The season opens officially May 30. First game for the locals will be June 2 with Long Beach.

The Cypress girls will journey to El Modena Friday night for a game with the "Tom Boys," beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

A $50 trophy will be awarded the first place winner in the league at the end of the season.

Trash Pick-up On May Third

A truck from the county road department will circulate around town on Wednesday, May 3.

Garbage will not be picked up, but accumulated brush, bottles and tin cans may be placed at the curb for collection.

Each year county road officials cooperate in this way so that residents may clean-up around their property to remove fire hazards and beautify their surroundings.
